THE KALEIDOSCOPE

VOLUME XXXIII

1958

PRESENTED BY

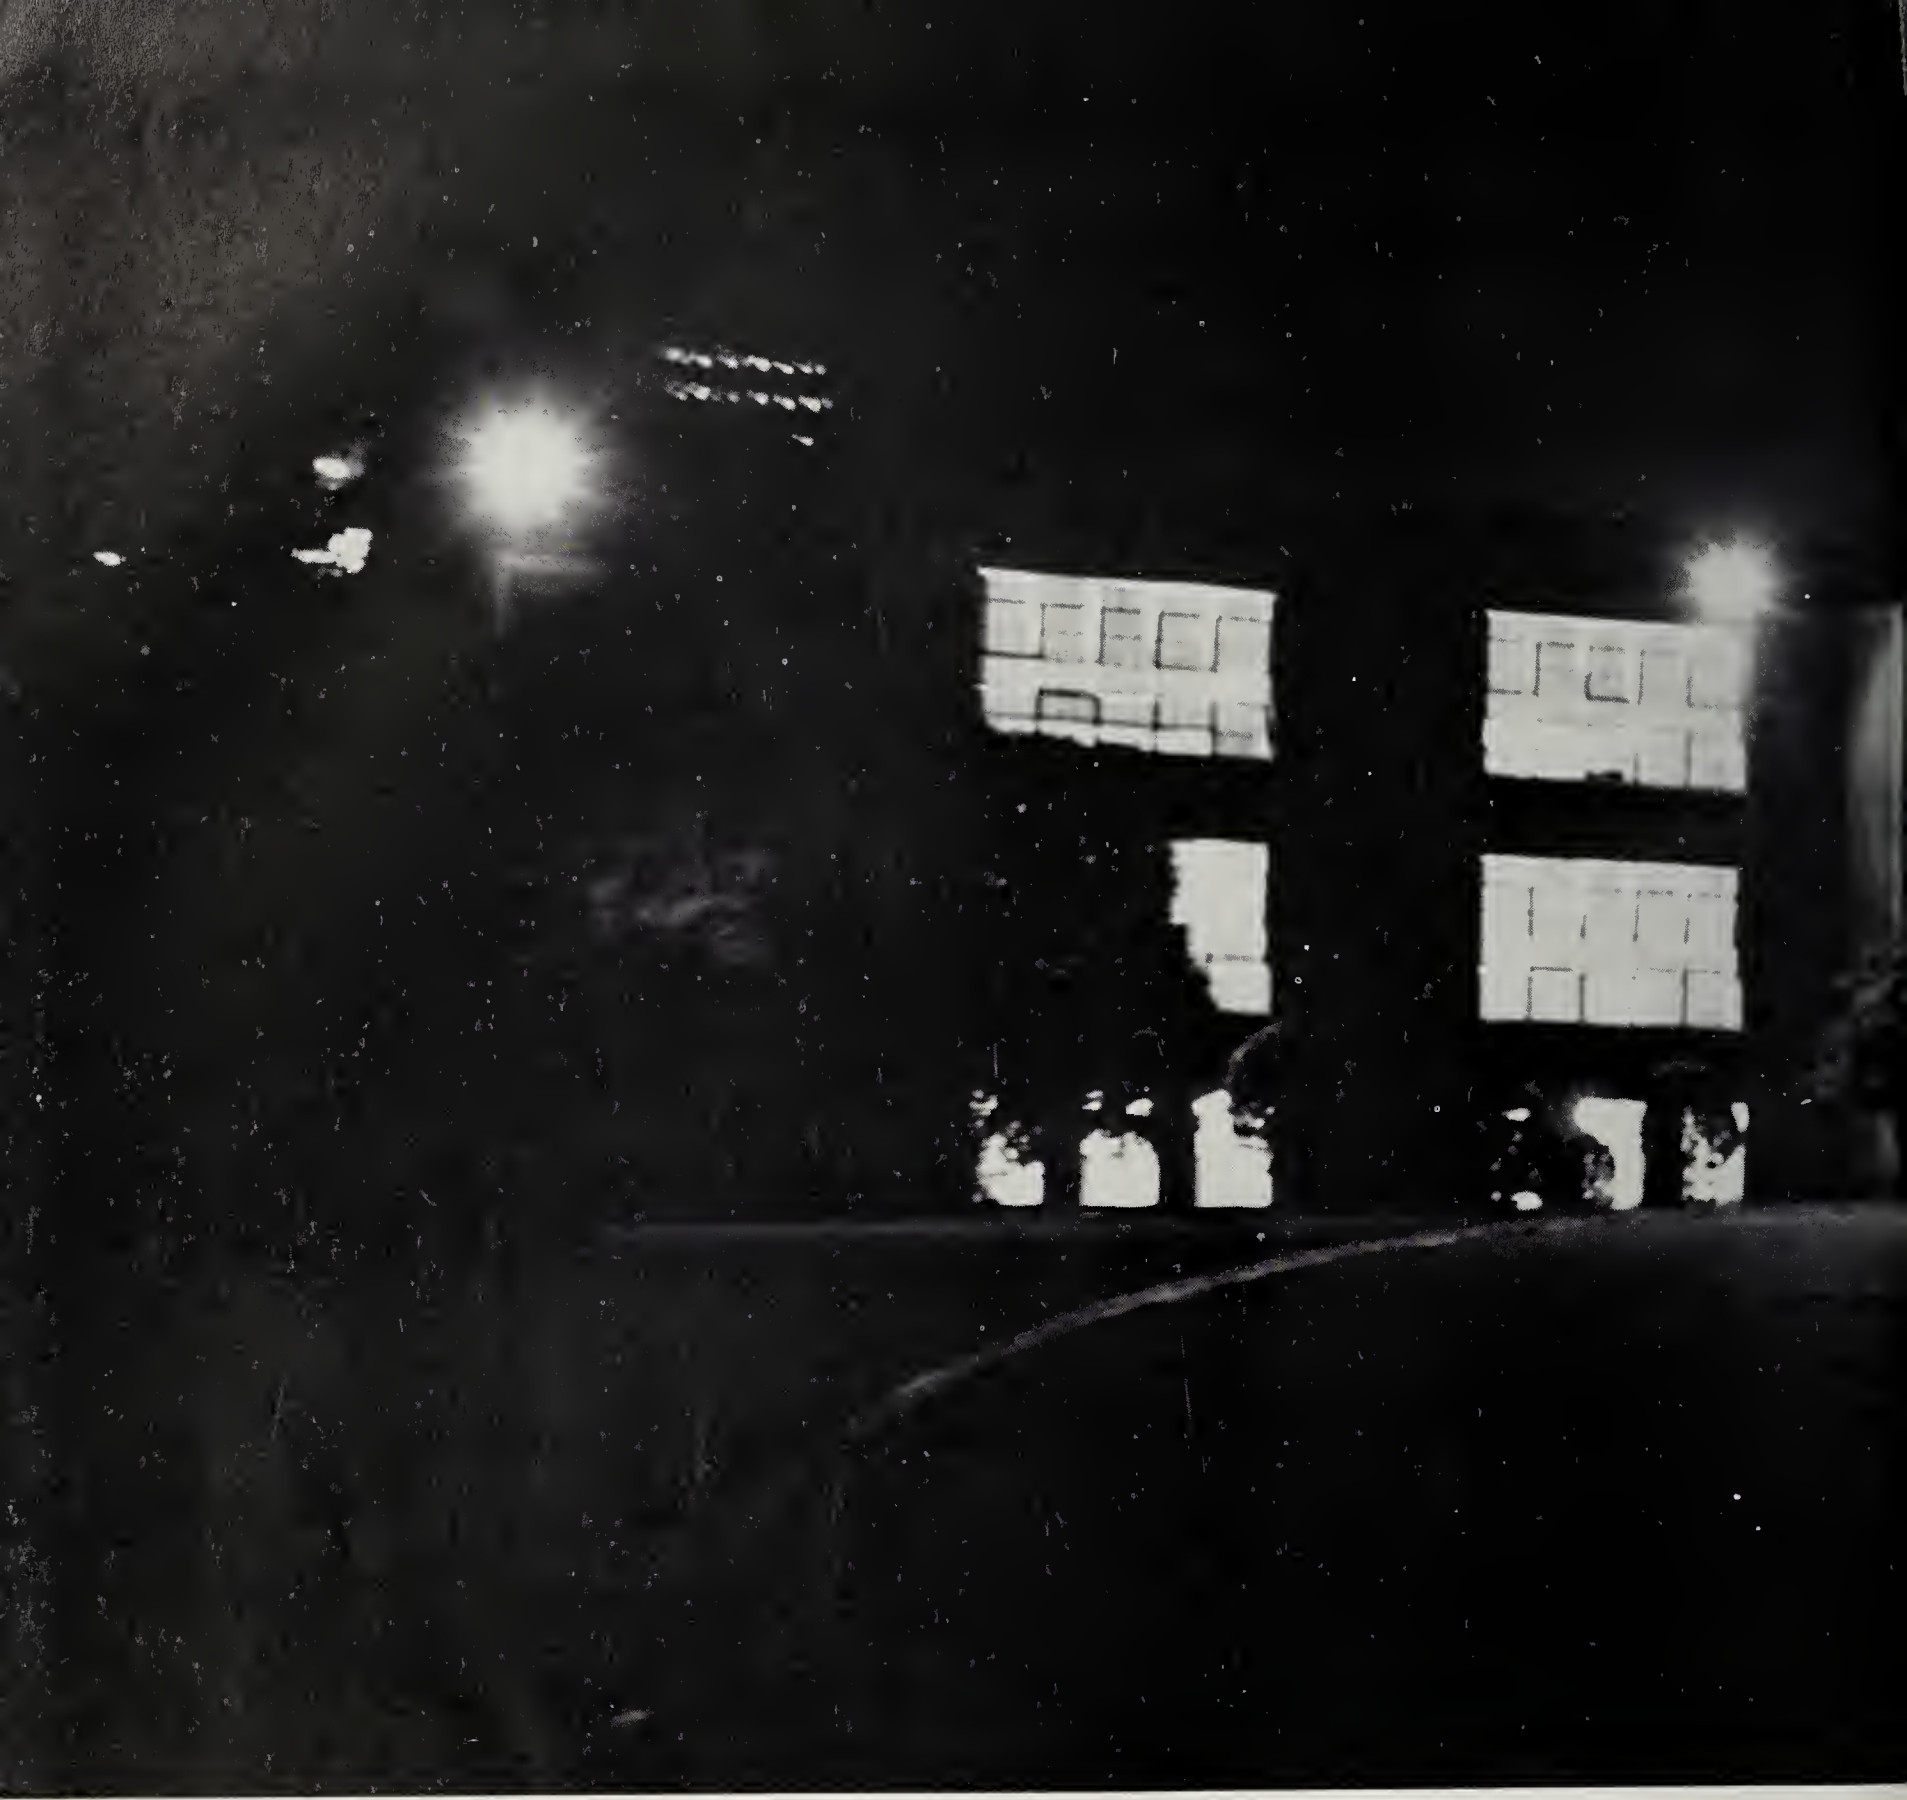

THE SENIOR CLASS

OF

HOPEWELL HIGH SCHOOL

HOPEWELL, VIRGINIA

FOREWORD

HOPEWELL HIGH SCHOOL - What a wealth of memories those words bring to mind! Making new friendships and strengthening old ones, cramming for tests and exams, attending ball games, participating in various activities - all of these are significant phases of our school life. It has been the earnest endeavor of the Kaleidoscope Staff of 1958 to make these pages a true reflection of this life. We are indeed proud to present a record of this, our final year, at Hopewell High School.

DEDICATION

For her unfailing help when we needed her the most, for her understanding and fairness no matter what the circumstance, for her warm, encouraging smile serving as a gentle bit of praise so often needed, we, the Senior Class of 1958, do dedicate with honor and with affection our KALEIDOSCOPE to

RAWLINGS

Clem, with his heaps of muscles, is one of Hope-well's football "greats" who has done an outstanding job on the gridiron. His good-natured laughter sums up his ability to get along with others.

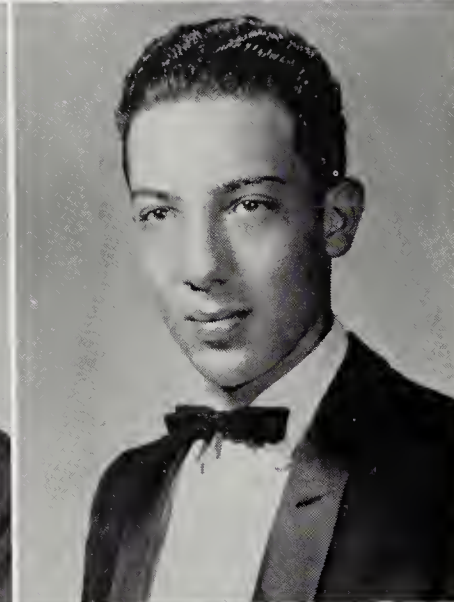

JOHN SAMKO

His unfeigned friendliness and politeness make John a well-liked person. His determined will to accomplish his ends will carry him far along the road of success.

CLARK PARKER SANGER

A quest for knowledge is deeply imbedded in Clark's nature. Impartiality and integrity are characteristic of this fine classmate.

MALCOLM DENNIS SAUNDERS

Behind his teasing manner lies a deep interest in others. Curly, sandy-colored hair and a courteous smile distinguish Dennis as a gentleman.

CAROLYN JEAN SCHULZ

Curly black hair, flashing eyes, and a bright disposition combine to give Schulzie a vivacious personality. Buoyant laughter is her trademark.

SIDNEY BENNETT SCOTT

His mellow voice accompanied by an electric guitar has been a delightful source of entertainment for many. Sidney's amicable personality couples politeness and bashfulness.

SANDRA WAYNE SEELY

Dramatic and poised, Sandra conveys calmness and dignity. She has participated in many activities and demonstrated both skill and talent.

SHIRLEY LEON SETCHEL

Shirley's outstanding performances on the basketball court have brought him renown as a fine athlete. An added attraction is afforded by his reserved good looks.

CLARA LOUISE SHACKELFORD

In Louise many have found an understanding and appreciative friend. Though quiet in the classroom, out of school we find her a joking and gay companion.

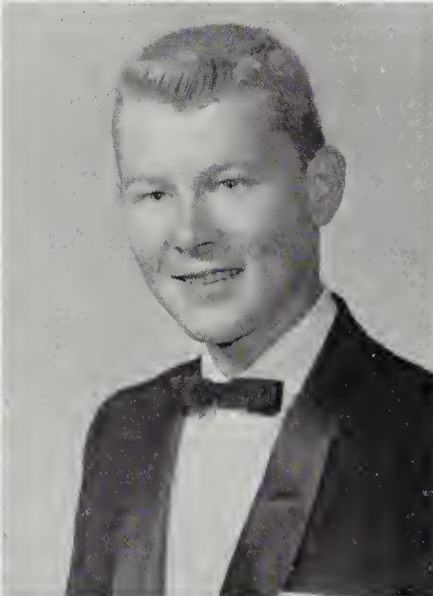

FORREST WAYNE
SHANNON

To few have been accorded the honor of being universally well liked as is the case with "Link." He is known for his laughing eyes and casual manner.

JESSE ALFRED SHARPE

Jesse has an easy-going nonchalance. With his perceptive intelligence, he shows a rare aptitude for the mechanical.

JOYCE FAYE SHELTON

Capricious and candid, Joyce is also sincere and frank. Not only is she thoroughly capable and businesslike in her manner, but she's eager to put her ability to use for others.

ELSIE MAY SHEPPE

Sweet and somewhat retiring, Elsie has all of the qualities that combine to make a splendid friend. She's a capable person who is endowed with a fine sense of discretion.

GEORGE MATHIESON SINGER

Bashfully good looking, diligent and dependable in his studies, George is a fine person. His amiability and readiness to join in fun mark him as a gay young blade.

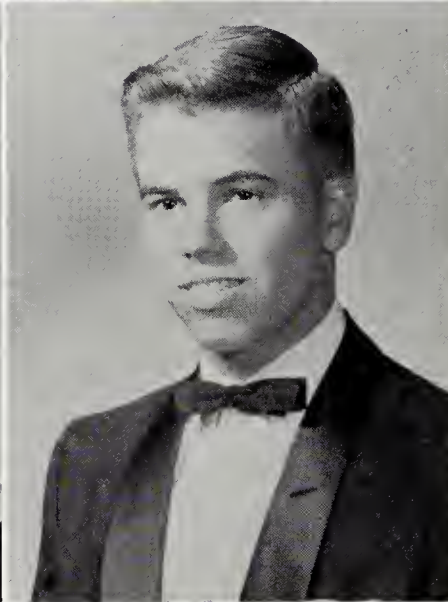

DAVID DEVERAUX
SLATE

Our converted "Petersburger," David entered H. H. S. with quiet determination. Never seen without a grin, he's fallen into the pattern of Hopewell's High's life with ease.

JUNE RUTH SMALLEY

June loves a good laugh and her spontaneous witticisms prompt this. She personifies the friendly spirit of our class.

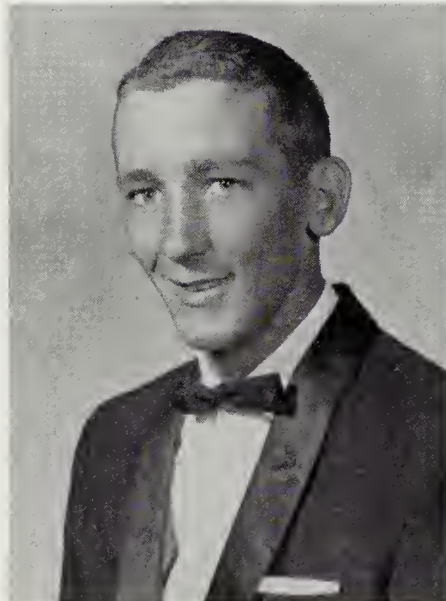

CHARLES ARNOLD
SMITH

A conscientious and capable leader, Charlie's variety of interests give him an enviable adaptability. His eloquent speech enables him to express his lofty thoughts both originally and informatively.

JOSEPH SAMUEL
SMITH

Hard-working Sammy is friendly to all. A personable boy, he does his best to make life lively for everyone around him.

MARIANNA SMITH

Gentle and demure, yet always ready for fun, our "Snow Queen" has a refreshing personality. Marianna's genuine school spirit and loyalty are admired by everyone.

BEULAH CAROLYN SOUTH

A slow Southern drawl and a friendly smile are Carolyn's introduction. She's devoted to being nice and pleasantly congenial.

ROBERTA MAE SPIERS

Frank and practical, Roberta is co-operative in every way. Her neat prettiness becomes her character.

CHARLES DANIEL STEVENS

As one who is sincerely interested in the betterment of H.H.S., Dan has served his classmates well. He has combined his talents - leadership, intelligence, and personal magnetism - to carry out his duties as our Junior and Senior Class President.

MELVIN BRYAN SUYES

Industrious Melvin with his quiet composure, is a capable boy, with a friendly word for all.

VETA MARIE

HOPEWELL HIGH SCHOOL LOG

SEPTEMBER-OCTOBER

One day over; 179 to go.

The fun has just begun.

Miss Sinclair, our visiting teacher, at work.

Somebody's bound to have a match.

What goes up must come down.

NOVEMBER-DECEMBER

"Five cents, ten cents"

"At the Hop"

More athletic honors for Hopewell High.

Sweethearts on parade.

Our traditional Christmas program

Proudly we display our Senior rings.

JANUARY-FEBRUARY

Worried Seniors do some last minute cramming.

Eighth graders learn about democracy.

. . . and we elect our spring Student Council officers.

Valentine's Day had its effect on all of us.

The Senior Class Dance Committee makes plans for the Rock 'n Roll Hop.

"Believe it or not, the Kaleidoscope just went to press!"

MARCH-APRIL

Term paper "party"

"Brusha, brusha, brusha" - those D.O. Convention trophies.

Festival bound

Kaleidoscope Staff members clean up for the yearbook convention.

"That'll be a good one to tell the boys!"

"Strike up the band!"

MAY-JUNE

"I'm ready! Now where 's Ray?"

Seniors go shopping with Class Day in mind.

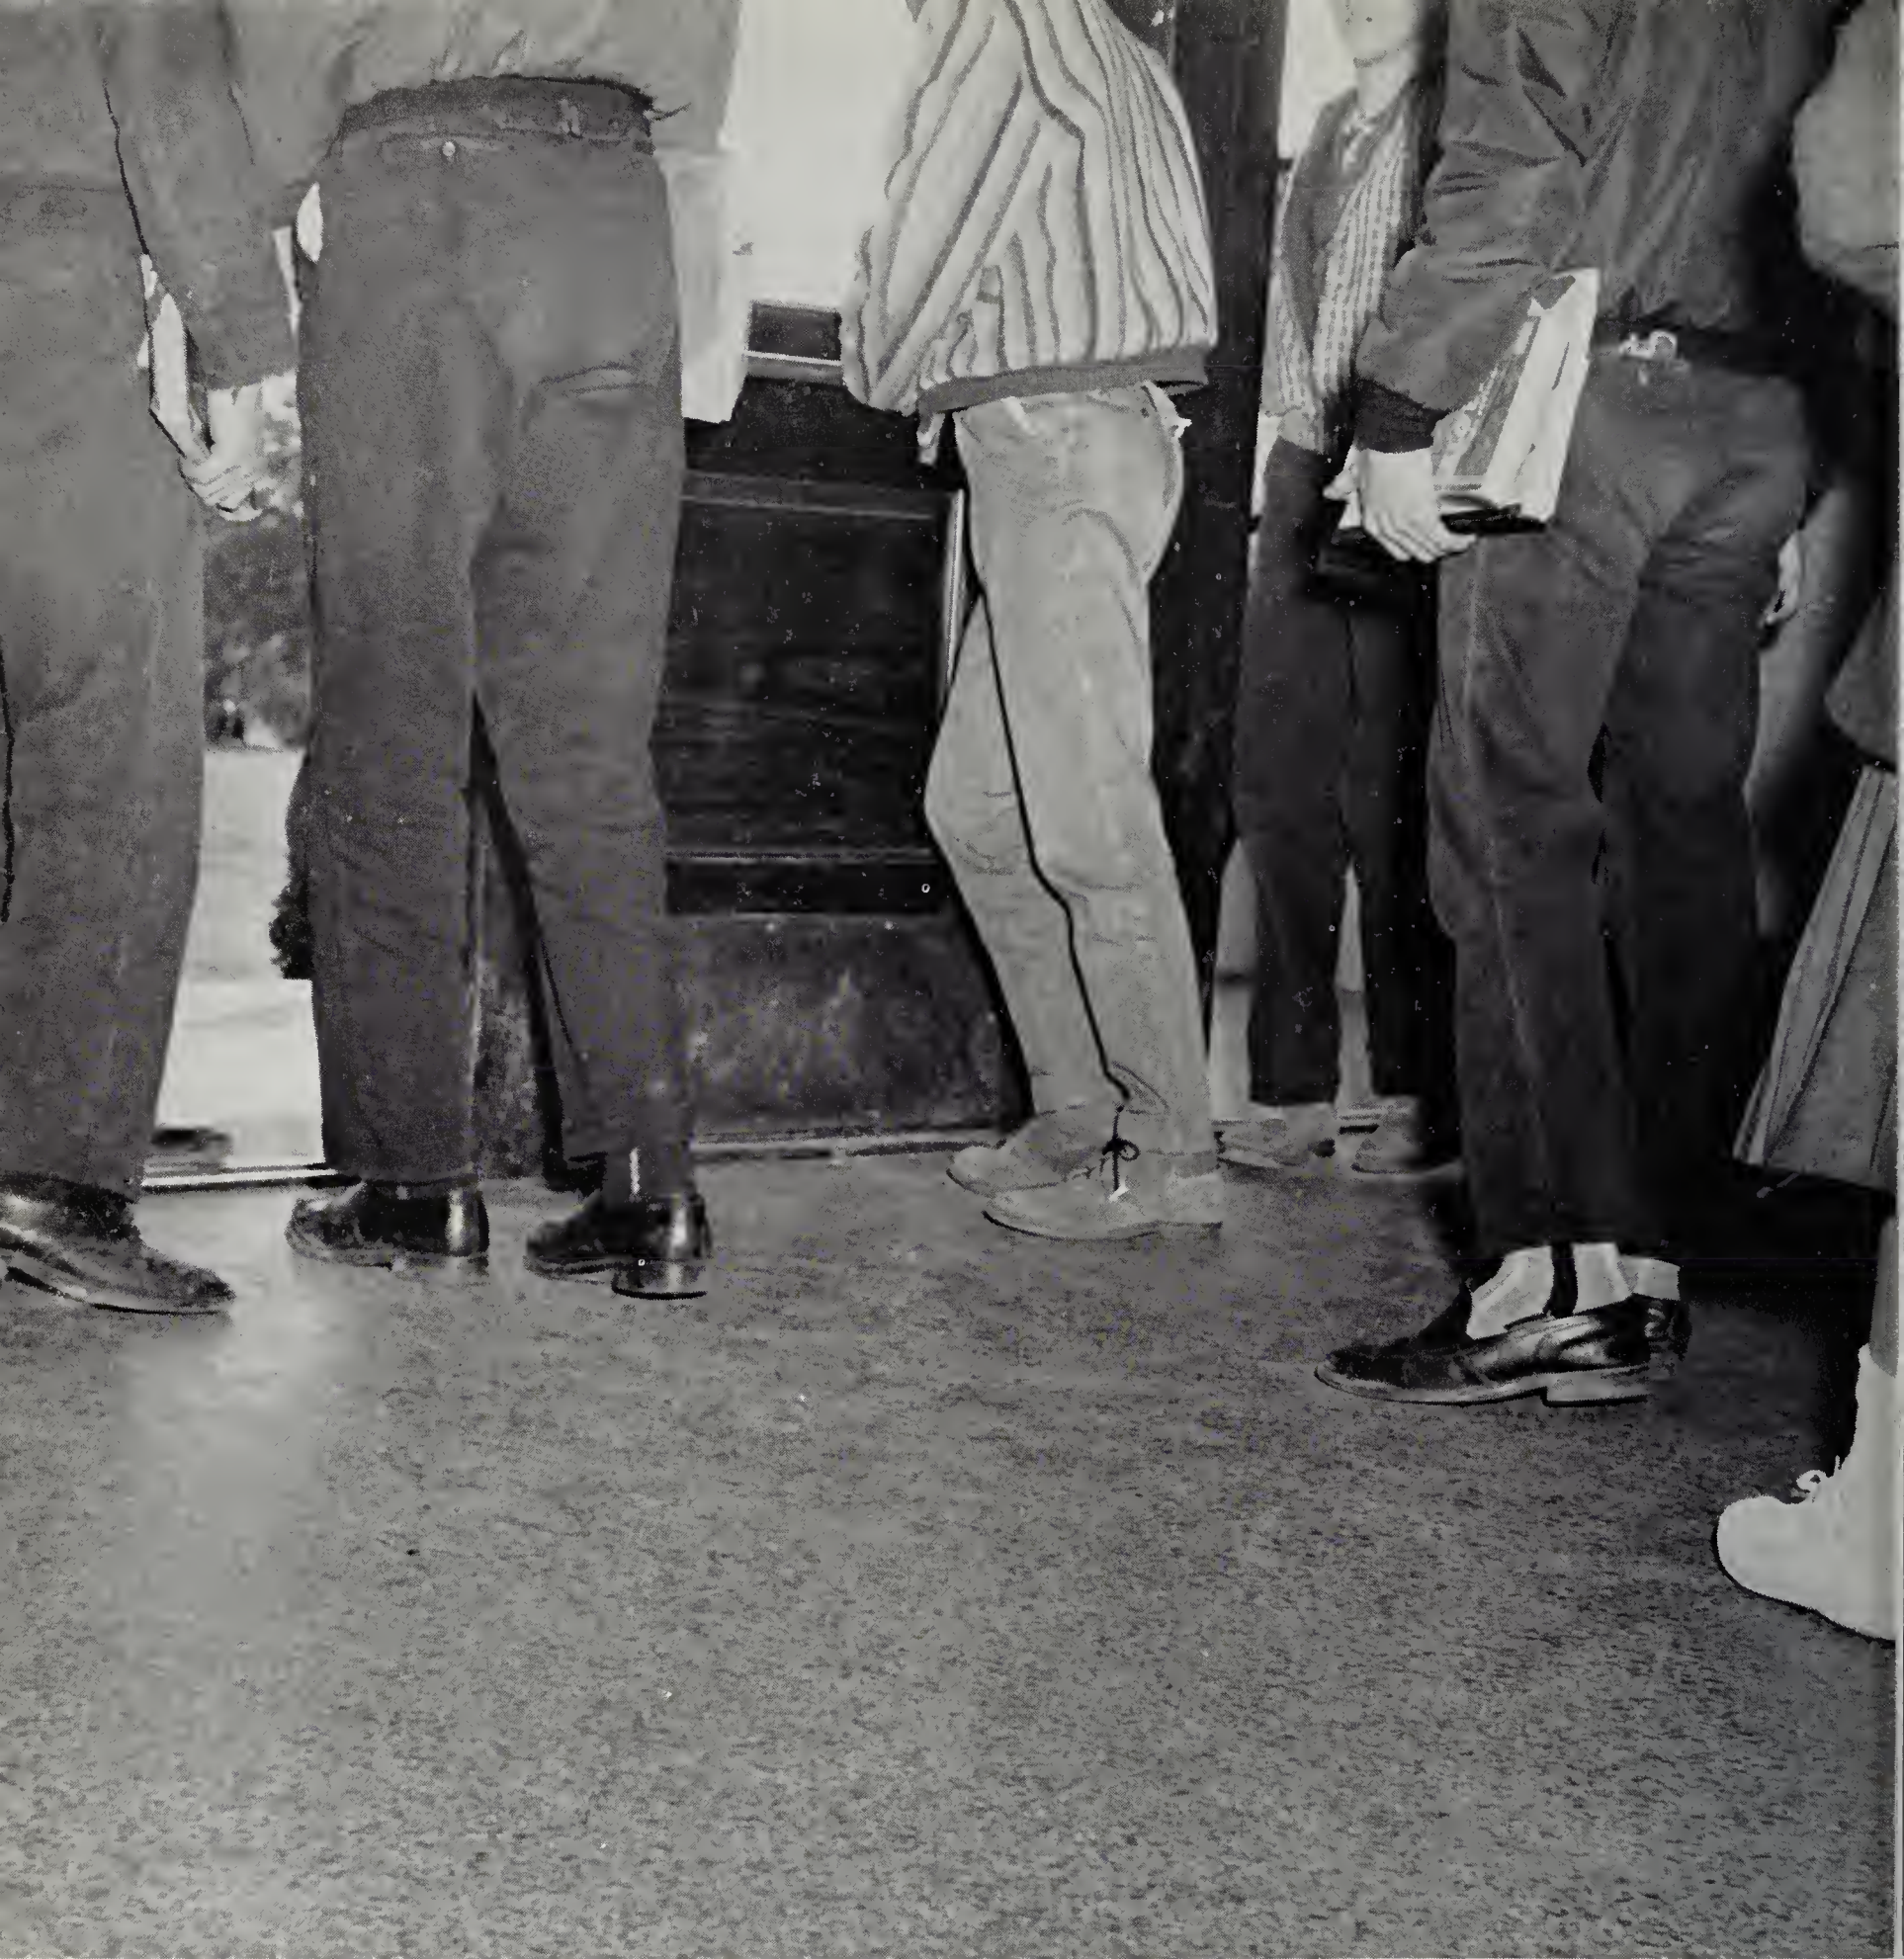

Nervous already about those graduation night speeches?

. . . we wave a fond farewell.

The time has come when we, the Seniors, must take our final walk through the halls and out of the doors of H.H.S. to travel the road of the future. As we bid a fond farewell to the four memory-filled years spent within these walls, it is with deep gratitude that we salute our school, its faculty, our parents, and our community. Each of these has contributed invaluable to our high school education. So pausing, for a brief but lasting look, we say, "Good-bye."

A CAREER With A Future!

If you like science and mathematics, consider engineering for your career! Engineering is the field of today and tomorrow. Progress is fast. New jobs are opening up every day. Plan for a job with a future—plan to be an engineer!

VIRGINIA ELECTRIC AND POWER COMPANY

A tip for a miss who's extra special

If you are an alert young woman, you'll find an "extra special" job at the telephone company.

You'll meet lots of young people your own age...work in pleasant surroundings...receive good pay while you're being trained...get regular raises. And you don't need any experience!

Best of all, you'll be helping almost everyone in your community. Why not find out more about the advantages of telephone work?

to

Ray Hash

Our sincere thanks to photographer Ray Hash for his untiring efforts toward making this year-book a reality, and to Pat Furr, for his co-operation in "shooting" typical hall scenes for the ad section.
